

For some CMTE topics, a certain course size is a must. Can you imagine trying to learn piano improv in a group of 30? Or have a good, interactive course about anything with more than 25 people? For the second time, we offered presenters the opportunity to tell us how many people is too many to provide a high-quality course—and a few courses are close to meeting that threshold. Currently, PCI 2 and CMTE D are full, and CMTE B has one spot available. If you are attempting to sign up for a limited-enrollment CMTE and cannot find it on the registration website, it is because the course has reached its pre-set registration limit. Please use this Form to sign up to be notified if one of the registrants of the course drops and a spot becomes available: <https://goo.gl/forms/Nkmwzw6RHt8bCcNJ3>
