and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board. The term of office shall be four (4) years.

Article VI - Elections, Terms of Office, and Vacancies

Section 1. A Nominating Committee consisting of the President-Elect and five (5) professional regional members representing five (5) different areas of the Region shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Board

Section 2. The Nominating Committee shall draw up a slate of consenting candidates for each elective office to be presented along with respective biographical information to the general membership at the annual regional conference. The Committee shall make every attempt to present at least two (2) candidates for each elective office. They shall also draw up a slate of twice as many nominees as there are designated positions for the Assembly of Delegates.
Additional nominees of consenting candidates shall be accepted from the floor at the annual regional conference.

Section 3. All regular and special elections shall be held by secret mail ballot directly following the annual regional conference. All nominees shall be listed with accompanying biographical information. For each office, the nominee receiving the greater or greatest number of votes shall be considered elected. In the event that this greater or greatest number is a tie, a deciding vote shall be cast by the members of the outgoing Executive Board. This shall apply to tie votes for the Assembly only when the tie would result in (a) one candidate serving on the Assembly and the other serving as an Alternate; or (b) one candidate serving as an Alternate and the other not being included as an Alternate. Ties within the list of Alternates shall be ranked and called at the discretion of the President. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall present the results for publication in the first edition of the official regional publication following the election and shall notify AMTA of the election results.

Section 4. Votes for Assembly Delegates will be tabulated and nominees will be ranked from highest to lowest. Primary Delegates will be those receiving the highest number of votes.
Alternate Delegate positions will be filled from the remaining nominees in rank order until all positions have been filled. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall present the results for publication in the first edition of the official regional publication following the election and shall notify AMTA of the election results.

Section 5. All elected officers except the President and Assembly Delegates shall commence office eight (8) weeks after the adjournment of the annual spring conference and continue for a term of two (2) years or until the next subsequent election. The incoming President shall be formally introduced at the closing session of the annual spring conference and assume duties of the office immediately thereafter. The Assembly Delegates’ term of office will coincide with the terms of the national officers.

Section 6. The President and President-Elect may not hold the same office for more than one (1) consecutive term.

Section 7. Should a vacancy occur in an Executive Board or other position, which is not filled through succession of office, the President will have the power to appoint someone to fill that position until the next annual regional conference. Immediately thereafter, there shall be a regular or special election, as specified in the Bylaws, Article VI, Section 3.

Section 8. Removal of an officer shall be dealt with as stated in Article XIII-75, Trial of Members of Societies in Robert's Rules of Order.

Article VII - Assembly of Delegates

Section 1. The Regional Delegates elected to the AMTA Assembly of Delegates shall attend all business meetings of the Assembly and represent the interests of the Region.

Section 2. Delegates and Alternates shall commit themselves to attendance at all regional business meetings, as well as regional and national conferences during their term of office. If a Delegate cannot attend a national or regional conference, he/she shall inform the President at least one (1) month prior to the conference so that the President may ensure that an Alternate attend in the Delegate's place. The President may at the time of the annual Assembly of Delegates substitute an active Mid-Atlantic member for an absentee Delegate or Alternate.

Section 3. The Delegates and Alternates shall be elected by secret mail ballot as outlined in Article VI, Section 4. Immediately following the bi-annual meeting of the Assembly-Elect, the Delegates shall elect one (1) person who will serve as Assembly Chair and perform the duties as outlined in Article IV, Section 4. Current voting members of the Executive Board shall be deemed ineligible to serve as Assembly Chair.

Section 4. The term of office for Regional Delegates shall be two (2) years.

Article VIII - National Standing Committees and Boards

Section 1. The National Standing Committees are: Academic Program Approval Committee, Association Internship Approval Committee, Continuing Education Committee, Government Relations Committee, Reimbursement Committee, Research Committee, Standards of Clinical Practice Committee, Affiliate Relations Committee, Employment and Public Relations Committee, International Relations Committee, International Relations Committee, Membership Committee, Professional Advocacy Committee and Special Target Populations Committee.

Section 2. The National Board is the Judicial Review Board.

Section 3. Representatives to each of these committees and national boards shall commit themselves to attendance at all national meetings, which occur during their terms, perform the functions of the committee, and submit a written report to the National Services Council Chair prior to each Regional Executive Board meeting and at the regional conference.

Section 4. The representatives to the national standing committees and the Judicial Review Board shall be appointed for a two (2) year term by the President with the approval of the Executive Board. Representatives may be reappointed at the President's discretion.

Article IX - Regional Committees

Section 1. Members and duties of the Nominating Committee are set forth in Article VI of the Bylaws.

Section 2. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Treasurer, who shall serve as chair, President, President-Elect, Past President and at least one (1) MAR member. Duties of the Finance Committee shall be to make recommendations to the Executive Board regarding fiduciary responsibility of the financial resources held by the region; to assist the Treasurer in the construction of the proposed annual budget; and to assist the Treasurer in developing and maintaining fiscal policy recommendations to the Executive Board.

Section 3. The Public Relations Committee shall consist of the Public Relations Chair, Media Specialist, Display Coordinator, and Pamphlet Coordinator. Duties of the Public Relations Committee are specified in the Bylaws, Article V, Sec. 1.

There shall be a representative from each state in the Mid-Atlantic Region (7), and seven (7) representatives with knowledge in issues pertaining to government relations such as: occupational regulation, IDEA, reimbursement. Duties of the Government Relations Committee are specified in the Bylaws, Article V, Sec. 2.

Section 5. The Research Committee shall consist of the MAR Representative to the AMTA Research Committee, who shall serve as chair, and five (5) MAR members with expertise in music therapy research. Members to this committee will be appointed by the President with approval from the Executive Board. Duties of the Research Committee shall be to serve as a resource for MAR members interested in carrying out research projects; to submit research articles to the regional newsletter; to sponsor the Research Poster Session at the annual conference; and to sponsor research related activities.

Article X - Special Interest Groups and State Chapters

Section 1. Members of the Mid-Atlantic Region may petition the Executive Board for recognition as a Special Interest Group for reasons of professional development in specialized areas of clinical practice. Members desiring to form a Special Interest Group (SIG) must present a request in writing from five (5) members stating the specialty area involved, the need for the SIG, and the educational and professional goals for the SIG. SIGs may request special programming for the annual conference and/or offer workshops and symposia in their field of specialization with the approval of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Members desiring to form a State Chapter of the MAR must present a request in writing, a copy of their Constitution and Bylaws and a current roster to the MAR President. These documents must be re-submitted when changes are made.

Section 3. SIGs and State Chapters may request special programming or meetings for the annual conference and/or offer workshops and symposia in their field of specialization with the approval of the Executive Board. Recognition is contingent upon an affirmative majority vote of the Executive Board.

Article XI - MAR Advocacy Award

An annual award will be presented to an individual(s) who has made an outstanding contribution to either the Mid-Atlantic Region or the field of music therapy.

Article XII - Annual Regional Conference

The annual conference of the Region will be not less than two (2) days.

Article XIII - Rules of Order

Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, most recent, shall govern this organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.
