

WV MT Weekend

October 16-18

Chestnut Ridge Park-Pyles Cabin

346 Chestnut Ridge Camp Rd.
Morgantown, WV 26525

BYO sheets, blankets, pillows, and towels

Schedule of Events:

Friday night cookout*

Saturday—

Breakfast*

9 AM: Tour of WVU CAC

10-1: CMTE "MT & SPED"

1:30: Beanery "Dutch"

Lunch Celebration

Dinner*

Sunday brunch*

*potluck style sign-up

Cost: $75 per person for

-2 night stay in cabin

-CMTE registration

CMTE registration only: $25

Payment due upon arrival

RSVP to Amy Rodgers Smith

onabetternote@yahoo.com

by October 2nd

CMTE: MT and Special Education

Saturday, October 17, 2015

WVU Creative Arts Center

One Fine Arts Dr. Morgantown, WV 26506

No prerequisites required

3 CMTEs

10:00-Intro, IDEA, and MT in SPED research

10:50-Break

11:00-Implement, SEMTAP/ MT-SEAS, & Admin considerations

12:00-Break

12:10-MT interventions & IEP goals (group work included)

12:50-Evaluations

Learning objectives (refer to CBMT Domains)

- Describe the SEMTAP assessment process (I.B.1-5)
- Explain how MT is a related service under IDEA (IV.B.9 & 20)
- Demonstrate a MT intervention based on IEP goal (II.A.2 & 5)
- List benefits of MT in SPED supported by research (IV.A.2)

Cost

$25 per MT-BC and $10 per student; due upon arrival. All money paid will be refunded if the event is cancelled.

Presenter

Amy Rodgers Smith, MT-BC has been practicing in schools for 7 years. She recently started contracts with 3 county school districts in West Virginia and has worked in an Alexandria, VA private preschool as well as in 3 large school districts in the Houston, TX area.

MT and Special Education is approved by the Certification Board for Music Therapists (CBMT) for 3 Continuing Music Therapy Education credits. The MAR-AMTA P#065 maintains responsibility for program quality and adherence to CBMT policies and criteria.