

BYLAWS
The Mid-Atlantic Region of the American Music Therapy Association
2023

Article I - Name

Section 1. The name of the organization shall be the Mid-Atlantic Region of the American Music Therapy Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the Region or the MAR.

Section 2. The Region exists as a subordinate organization within the structure of the American Music Therapy Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the AMTA.

Section 3. This document does not supersede the Bylaws adopted by the AMTA.

Article II - Mission and Purposes

Section 1. The mission of the Mid-Atlantic Region of the American Music Therapy Association is to advance public awareness of the benefits of music therapy, to increase access to quality music therapy services, and to provide support to its members within the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Section 2. The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and specifically:

- (a) to improve and advance the use of music, in both its breadth and quality, in clinical, educational, and community settings for the betterment of public health and welfare.
- (b) to train and educate music therapists;
- (c) to advance and support research about music therapy;
- (d) to provide a forum for the exchange and publication of information about music therapy;
- (e) to provide assistance and support to its members to facilitate their role in the foregoing purposes; and
- (f) to engage in any other lawful activity incidental to the foregoing purposes, except as restricted herein.

Section 3. In order to accomplish the foregoing charitable and educational purposes, and for no other purpose or purposes, this organization shall also have the power to:

- (a) sue and be sued;
- (b) make contracts;
- (c) receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and otherwise acquire and hold all property, real or personal including shares of stock, bonds, and securities of corporations;

(d) act as trustee under any trust whose objectives are related to the principal objects of the corporation, and to receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust;

(e) convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer upon trust or otherwise dispose of all property, real or personal;

(f) borrow money, contract debts and issue bonds, notes, and debentures, and secure the payment of any performance of its obligations; and

(g) do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of this organization; provided, however, that this organization shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this organization.

Section 12. The Student Affairs Advisor, being elected by MARAMTS, shall: serve as the regional representative to the Student Affairs Advisory Board of AMTA; attend Regional Executive Board meetings; serve as a conduit for student problems and concerns, referring to appropriate committees and officers; keep the Regional Executive Board advised of all regional and national student activities; communicate with, advise, and guide corresponding student officer; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; submit a written report at the annual regional conference; coordinate and administrate the Jenny Shinn Memorial Scholarship, the Sophomore and Junior Scholarships, and any other student scholarships/awards initiated by the MAR or MARAMTS; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board. Should the Student Affairs Advisor resign prior to the end of their term, MARAMTS will convene a special election within two (2) weeks of the vacancy of the office.

Section 13. The Student Representative shall: hold the current office of Vice President of MARAMTS; and, with the Student Affairs Advisor, communicate with other music therapy students in AMTA affiliated schools; report student views and concerns to the Board; attend Regional Executive Board meetings; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board; and serve on the Conference Council.

Article VI - Duties of Appointed Officers

Section 1. The Recording Secretary shall: send out meeting announcements; prepare the Executive Board Book for all Executive Board Business Meetings; assist the President in preparing and distributing agendas; take-minutes, including all motions and votes of all meetings of the Executive Board and the general membership; include the results in their report to the Executive Board; and assure that corporate minutes are maintained. The Recording Secretary shall submit copies of minutes to the Executive Board, for approval, and shall submit approved minutes to the Archivist; and the webmaster for posting on the Regional website. The Recording Secretary shall also: communicate with, advise, and guide the corresponding student officer; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board.

Section 2. The Editor shall: oversee, format, and publish the official regional publication which shall be published quarterly pending availability of funds; ensure timely communication and outreach regarding upcoming events, elections, and updated MAR information; facilitate regional elections including creating ballots, tracking responses, and informing the Immediate Past-President of the results; maintain a database of current and past MAR members, conference attendees, and those that sign into the newsletter; attend Regional Executive Board meetings; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; communicate with, advise and guide the corresponding student officer; submit an annual written report at the regional conference; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board.

Section 3. The Parliamentarian shall: be knowledgeable of the MAR Bylaws as well as the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, hereinafter referred to as Robert's Rules of Order; assist the MAR Executive Board in interpreting the Bylaws and rules of order; serve on the Bylaws Revision Committee; and advise the President on the proper procedures for the conduct of Executive Board and Regional business meetings.

Section 4. The Historian shall, with the Archivist, co-chair the Historical Preservation Committee; preserve and share pertinent events within the MAR; publish any findings of historical value in the regional publication; coordinate historical displays and the dissemination of historical information; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; submit an annual written report at the regional conference; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board.

Section 5. The Archivist shall, with the Historian, co-chair the Historical Preservation Committee; maintain the regional Archives, including identifying best methods for maintaining, storing, and (when appropriate) digitizing various types of documents and artifacts; forward appropriate items to the AMTA Archivist for permanent preservation in the AMTA Archives; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; submit an annual written report at the regional conference; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board.

Section 6. The Continuing Education Coordinator shall: coordinate regional continuing education events; assure that the region remains in good standing as an approved continuing education provider according to the policies of CBMT and any other regulatory bodies; serve as regional representative to the Continuing Education Committee of AMTA; attend Regional Executive Board meetings; establish and/or maintain a handbook outlining job responsibilities; submit an annual, written report at the regional conference; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President and Executive Board.

Article VII - Appointed Positions

Appointed positions shall consist of the following: Regional Event Planner and Assistant Editor. Specific duties of each position shall be defined and assigned by the President and/or the Executive Board. The Region will maintain handbooks delineating the current duties of each appointed position.

Article VIII - Executive Board

Section 1. There shall be an Executive Board consisting of thirteen (13) voting members: President, President-Elect, Vice President for Conference Planning, Vice President-Elect for Conference Planning, Vice President for Membership, Immediate Past-President, Treasurer, Treasurer-Elect, Student Affairs Advisor, Government Relations Chair, Government Relations Chair-Elect, Public Relations Chair, and Student Representative. The Parliamentarian, Recording Secretary, Editor, Historian, Archivist, Assembly Chair, and Continuing Education Coordinator shall be ex-officio members without the right to vote.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall transact the general business of the Region and shall be responsible for the management and control of its funds. The Executive Board shall review and approve a budget for the forthcoming fiscal year at the Executive Board meeting at the national conference. The Executive Board shall seek input from the MAR community via email, social media, and/or town hall meetings about unusual financial decisions.

Article IX - Elections, Terms of Office, and Vacancies

Section 1. A Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Board. The Nominating Committee shall be chaired by the Immediate Past-President and include the President-Elect and five (5) professional regional members that reflect the diverse perspectives and identities of the music therapy profession. The representatives to the Nominating Committee shall be appointed for a two (2) year term, commencing during the fall business meeting in even-numbered years.

Section 2. The Nominating Committee shall draw up a slate of consenting candidates for each elective office to be presented to the general membership at the annual regional conference or via special election procedures as specified in Section 5 of this Article. The slate of candidates shall be anonymous. The Nominating Committee shall provide membership with biographical information obtained via questionnaire pertaining to each candidate's training, life experiences, perspective, and motivation to serve, avoiding identifying information wherever possible. The Committee shall make every attempt to present at least two (2) candidates for each elective office. They shall also draw up a slate of at least twice as many nominees as there are designated positions for the Assembly of Delegates, as determined by the AMTA Board of Directors. Additional nominees of consenting candidates for elective offices shall be accepted from the floor at the annual regional conference or via special election procedures as specified in Section 5 of this Article.

Section 3. All elections shall be held by secret ballot. For regular elections, ballots will be distributed no later than two (2) weeks following the conclusion of the annual regional conference. All nominees shall be listed on the Region's website with accompanying biographical information. For each office, the nominee receiving the greater or greatest number of votes shall be considered elected. In the event that this greater or greatest number is a tie, the members of the outgoing Executive Board shall cast a deciding vote. This shall apply to tie votes for the Assembly only when the tie would result in (a) one candidate serving on the Assembly and the other serving as an Alternate; or (b) one candidate serving as an Alternate and the other not being included as an Alternate. Ties within the list of Alternates shall be ranked and called at the discretion of the President. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall present the results for publication in the first edition of the official regional publication following the election and shall notify AMTA of the election results.

Section 4. Should a vacancy occur in an elective office which is not filled through regular succession of that office, the President shall appoint someone to fill that position until it is filled by regular or special election, as specified in Sections 2, 3, and 5 of this Article. Should a vacancy occur in the Immediate Past President position, the President will appoint someone to fill that position for the remainder of the term with preference being given to former Past Presidents.

Section 5. A special election will be completed within four (4) months of the vacancy of an elective office, which is not filled through regular succession of that office, as specified in Section 4 of this Article. In the event a special election is held between conferences of the Region, the nomination and election shall be conducted via electronic media as follows: The Nominating Committee will present a slate of nominees to the members. In the two (2) weeks that follow, members may nominate additional consenting candidates. Ballots will then be distributed within two (2) weeks following the end of the nomination period. When a special election is held during a regional conference, should only one nominee be identified by the end of the final business meeting of the same conference, the members present can vote for the one nominee, thereby suspending the ballot process.

Section 6. Votes for Assembly Delegates will be tabulated and nominees will be ranked from highest to lowest. Primary Delegates will be those receiving the highest number of votes. Alternate Delegate positions will be filled from the remaining nominees in rank order until all positions have been filled. In the event of a tie for the final Assembly position, the members shall cast a deciding vote. The Chair of the Nominating Committee shall present the results via email, and social media following the election and shall notify AMTA of the election results.

Section 7. All elected officers except the Treasurer, Treasurer-Elect, and Assembly Delegates shall commence office at the conclusion of the summer transition meeting and continue for a term of two (2) years or until the next subsequent election. The incoming President shall be formally introduced at the closing session of the annual spring conference. The Treasurer's and Treasurer-Elect's terms will commence with the start of the new fiscal year following the election. The Assembly Delegates' term of office will coincide with the terms of the national officers.

Section 8. During the interim between their election or appointment to office and their assumption of that office, the newly elected or appointed officers are expected to contact the outgoing officers and to become fully apprised of the events and information associated with the office. Retiring officers will surrender all records and accounts related to their offices to their successors by the first day of the new officers' term of office.

Section 9. A member who has served in the position of President Elect, Government Relations Chair-Elect, VP for Conference Planning-Elect, or Treasurer-Elect may run for this position again, following the passage of at least one full election cycle after fulfilling the entire service commitment associated with that position.

Section 10. Removal of an officer shall be dealt with as stated in Article XIII-75, Trial of Members of Societies in Robert's Rules of Order.

Article X - Assembly of Delegates

Section 1. The Regional Delegates elected to the AMTA Assembly of Delegates shall attend all business meetings of the Assembly and represent the interests of the Region.

Section 2. Delegates and Alternates shall commit themselves to attendance at all regional business meetings, as well as regional and national conferences during their term of office. If a Delegate cannot attend a national conference, they shall inform the Assembly Chair at least one (1) month prior to the conference so that the Assembly Chair may ensure that an Alternate attend in the Delegate's place. The Assembly Chair may substitute an active Mid-Atlantic member for an absentee Delegate or Alternate at any meeting of the Assembly of Delegates.

Section 3. The Delegates and Alternates shall be elected by secret ballot as outlined in Article IX, Section 3. In odd-numbered years, the Assembly Delegates and Alternates shall elect one Delegate to serve as Assembly Chair in an email vote coordinated by the Immediate Past President within one (1) month following the annual AMTA conference. Current voting members of the Executive Board, as well as Alternate Delegates, shall be deemed ineligible to serve as Assembly Chair.

Section 4. The Assembly Chair shall: serve as a liaison among the Executive Board, Assembly Delegates and Alternates and the general membership; serve on the Bylaws Revision Committee; attend Regional Executive Board meetings; disseminate information related to issues expected to come before the Assembly to the general membership; solicit feedback from the membership on issues that are to come before the Assembly; submit a written report for publication in the newsletter following Assembly of Delegates meetings; work with the President and the Delegates and Alternates to ensure attendance and participation in Assembly meetings at each national conference; schedule periodic meetings of the regional delegation throughout the year, some to include the general membership; ensure concurrent session at the regional conference; and carry out such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Executive Board.

Section 5. The term of office for Regional Delegates shall be two (2) years.

Section 6. Should the Assembly Chair resign, a special election of the remaining Delegates shall be organized within two (2) weeks by the Immediate Past President to fill the vacancy. This election shall occur electronically and include any current Delegates who agree to run. In the event that no Delegates agree to run, the President shall assume the duties of the Assembly Chair until the next Assembly-Elect is seated in the fall and elects a new Chair.

Article XI - National Standing Committees and Boards

Section 1. A representative shall be appointed to each of the National Standing Committees and the Judicial Review Board. The MAR Student Affairs Advisor, elected by MARAMTS, serves as the regional representative to the Student Affairs Advisory Board of AMTA.

Section 2. The National Standing Committees are: Academic Program Approval Committee; Association Internship Approval Committee; Clinical Practice Networking Committee; Continuing Education Committee; Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Accessibility, and Justice Committee; Government Relations Committee; International Relations Committee; Interprofessional Collaborative Resources Committee; Membership Committee; Professional Advocacy Committee; Reimbursement Committee; Research Committee; Standards of Clinical Practice Committee; Technology Committee; and Workforce Development and Retention Committee.

Section 3. The National Boards which include regional representation are the Judicial Review Board and the Student Affairs Advisory Board.

Section 4. Representatives to each of these committees and national boards shall commit themselves to attendance at all national meetings which occur during their terms and perform the functions of the committee prior to each Regional Executive Board meeting and at the regional conference.

Section 5. The representatives to the national standing committees and the Judicial Review Board shall be appointed for a two (2) year term by the President with the approval of the Executive Board. Representatives may be reappointed at the President's discretion.

Section 6. Prospective appointed committee and council members shall submit a short biography to the Executive Board for consideration before approval.

Article XII - Regional Councils and Committees

Section 1. There shall be one standing council: The Regional Conference Council. Members to this council shall be appointed by the President, with approval of the Executive Board, unless it is already a duty of an elected or appointed position.

Section 2. The Regional Conference Council shall be chaired by the Vice President for Conference Planning and shall include the Vice President-Elect for Conference Planning, the Regional Event Planner, the Exhibits Coordinator, the Local Host(s), the Continuing Education Coordinator, the Public Relations Chair, and the Vice President of MARAMTS.

Section 3. Members of the Bylaws Revision Committee; Cultural Humility, Accessibility, Diversity, and Inclusion (CHADI) Committee; Finance Committee; Government Relations Committee; Historical Preservation Committee; Nominating Committee; Public Relations Committee; Regional Ad Hoc Committees; and Research Committee shall be appointed by the President with Executive Board approval. The Bylaws Revision Committee; Cultural Humility; Accessibility, Diversity, and Inclusion (CHADI) Committee; Finance Committee; Government Relations Committee; Historical Preservation Committee; Nominating Committee; Public Relations Committee; and Research Committee shall perform such duties as specified in the Bylaws. The regional ad hoc committees shall perform such duties as authorized by the Executive Board.

Article XIII - Regional Committees and Auxiliary Organizations

Section 1. Members and duties of the Nominating Committee are set forth in Article IX, Sections 1 through 10.

Section 2. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Treasurer, who shall serve as chair, Treasurer-Elect, President, President-Elect, Past President and at least one (1) additional member from the MAR. Duties of the Finance Committee shall be to make recommendations to the Executive Board regarding fiduciary responsibility of the financial resources held by the region; to assist the Treasurer in the construction of the proposed annual budget; and to assist the Treasurer in developing and maintaining fiscal policy recommendations to the Executive Board.

Section 3. The Public Relations Committee shall consist of the Public Relations Chair, the MARAMTS Public Relations Chair, and a minimum of three (3) additional members of the MAR. Duties of the Public Relations Chair are specified in Article V, Section 9. Duties of the Public Relations Committee members are to assist the Public Relations Chair in carrying out their duties.

Section 4. The Government Relations Committee shall consist of the Government Relations Chair, Government Relations Chair-Elect, and the Chairs of the State Task Forces within the MAR. Duties of the Government Relations Chair and Government Relations Chair-Elect are specified in Article V, Sections 10 and 11. Duties of the Government Relations Committee members are to participate in AMTA national advocacy activities and assist with the implementation of the AMTA and CBMT State Recognition Operational Plan within the MAR.

Section 5. The Research committee shall consist of the MAR Representative to the AMTA Research Committee, who shall serve as chair, and five (5) additional members of the MAR with expertise in music therapy research. Members to this committee will be appointed by the President with approval from the Executive Board. Duties of the Research Committee shall be to serve as a resource for the MAR members interested in carrying out research projects; to submit research articles to the regional newsletter; to sponsor the Research Poster Session at the annual conference; and to sponsor research related activities.

Section 6. The Historical Preservation Committee shall consist of the Historian and Archivist, who shall serve as Co-Chairs, the Immediate Past President, a student representative, and a minimum of two (2) additional members of the MAR. Duties of the Historical Preservation Committee are to serve as a resource for MAR members interested in historical research; submit articles to the regional newsletter; coordinate the presentation of historical sessions at the annual conference; prepare and exhibit archival materials at the MAR booth and AMTA and MAR conferences; and support and assist the Archivist in obtaining and preserving items for the Regional Archives.

Section 7. The MAR Cultural Humility, Accessibility, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee (CHADI) shall consist of two (2) co-chairs, a minimum of one (1) student representative, and a minimum of three (3) additional members of the MAR. Duties of the CHADI Committee are to increase knowledge as it pertains to diversity, accessibility, and inclusion for the region; serve as a resource for the MAR on issues pertaining to cultural humility, accessibility, diversity and inclusion; and collaborate with the MAR President and Vice President for Membership to address human rights disasters that negatively impact members of our region. One of the co-chairs of the CHADI Committee will represent the MAR on the AMTA Disaster Relief Committee and the AMTA Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Accessibility, and Justice Committee.

Section 8. The Bylaws Revision Committee shall consist of the President-Elect, who shall serve as Chair, the Immediate Past-President, Parliamentarian, Assembly Chair, MARAMTS Parliamentarian, and a minimum of two (2) additional professional members of the MAR. Duties of the Bylaws Revision Committee are to study and propose changes in the Bylaws as may be deemed necessary; to present proposed changes to the membership as established in Article XVI; and to lead discussion and voting on the proposed changes during the Business Meetings at the annual regional conference.

Section 9. The establishment of auxiliary organizations is authorized by the Executive Board. Each of these organizations adopts the purposes and goals of the MAR, agrees to conform to the Bylaws of the MAR, and submits a copy of its Bylaws to the Executive Board for formal approval. The relationship of such organizations to the MAR may be defined from time to time by the Executive Board.

Section 10. The Mid-Atlantic Region Association for Music Therapy Students (MARAMTS) is the official student organization of the MAR and will conform to the requirements for auxiliary organizations as specified in the Bylaws.

Article XIV - Meetings

Section 1. There shall be a virtual participatory option for all general membership meetings.

Section 2. An annual regional conference shall be held. It will be not less than two (2) days in length. The location and date shall be determined by the Executive Board. Business meetings during regional conference shall be held before the final day of the annual regional conference to ensure maximum participation.

Section 3. Notice of all regional business meetings shall be provided to members entitled to vote not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the meeting.

Section 4. A membership meeting of the Region shall be called at the National Conference. The President shall coordinate with the AMTA Vice President to ensure a meeting is scheduled.

Section 5. Additional meetings of the Region shall be called by the President, if requested by seven (7) members of the Executive Board or upon signed petition by thirty-five (35) professional members of the Region.

Section 6. A minimum of two (2) meetings of the Executive Board shall be held annually. The dates of these meetings shall be set as far in advance as possible and be open to all regional members in good standing. Special meetings of the Executive Board shall be called by the President or upon the joint written request of no less than seven (7) members of the Executive Board.

Section 7. In situations where meeting virtually is conducive to the business and attendees of the meeting, any meeting may occur virtually at a time and date to be determined by the Executive Board.

Article XV - Quorum

Section 1. Quorum of the Executive Board shall consist of at least seven (7) elected officers of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Quorum of the Executive Board plus twenty-five (25) other professional members of the Region shall constitute quorum for regional business meetings. At no time shall the lack of quorum at a non-business session prevent those present from proceeding with the program of the day.

Article XVI – Bylaws Amendments

Section 1. Proposed amendments to these Bylaws shall be submitted to the membership at least 24 hours in advance of a business meeting to be held at or around the time of the regional conference. The presentation of proposed amendments will include an opportunity for discussion and debate and will be recorded. An electronic vote, including this recording and the proposed amendments and rationale, will be sent to all voting members within two (2) weeks of the business meeting. A two-thirds majority vote is required for passage of proposed amendments. The Chair of the Bylaws Revision Committee shall present the results for publication in the first edition of the official regional publication following the vote.

Article XVII - Special Interest Groups and State Associations

Section 1. Members of the Mid-Atlantic Region may petition the Executive Board for recognition as a Special Interest Group for reasons of professional development in specialized areas of clinical practice. Members desiring to form a Special Interest Group (SIG) must present a request in writing from five (5) members stating the specialty area involved, the need for the SIG, and the educational and professional goals for the SIG. SIGs may request special programming for the annual conference and/or offer workshops and symposia in their area of specialization with the approval of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Members desiring to form a State Association of the MAR must present a request in writing, a copy of their Bylaws and a current roster to the MAR President. These documents must be re-submitted when changes are made.

Section 3. SIGs and State Associations may request special programming or meetings for the annual conference and/or offer workshops and symposia in their area of specialization with the approval of the Executive Board. Recognition is contingent upon an affirmative majority vote of the Executive Board.

Article XVIII - MAR Advocacy Award

An annual award may be presented to one or more individuals who are not music therapists who have made an outstanding contribution to either the Mid-Atlantic Region or the profession of music therapy.

Article XIX - Rules of Order

Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, most recent, shall govern this organization in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.

Article XX - Charitable Activity Restrictions

No part of the net income of the organization shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes and objects of this organization. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions set forth in these Bylaws, at any time during which it is deemed a private foundation, the organization shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; the organization shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; the organization shall not own any excess business holdings that would subject it to tax under Section 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; the organization shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject the organization to the tax imposed by Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; and the organization shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Bylaws, the organization shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, or by an organization contributions to which are to be deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Article XXI - Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the organization or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the organization shall be distributed exclusively for charitable or educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Organizations having purposes similar to those of this organization shall be preferred.
